Invocation

THE REVEREND STANLEY R. HOPPER

Hymn

Now thank we all our God With heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done, In whom His world rejoices;
Who, from our mothers' arms, Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love, And still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God, Through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts And Blessed peace to cheer us;
And keep us in His grace, And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all ills In this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God The Father now be given,
The Son, and Him who reigns With them in highest heaven,
The one eternal God, Whom earth and heaven adore;
For thus it was, is now, And shall be evermore. Amen.

Benediction

THE REVEREND CHARLES A. L. BICKELL

Superintendent, Sunbury District, The Methodist Church

Hymn

Guide me, O Thou great Jehovah, Pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but Thou art mighty; Hold me with Thy powerful hand;
Strong Deliverer, strong Deliverer, Be Thou still my strength and shield,
Be Thou still my strength and shield.

Feed me with the heavenly manna, In this hungry wilderness;
Let the fire and cloudy pillar All my earthly journey bless;
Bread of heaven, Bread of heaven, Feed me till I want no more,
Feed me till I want no more.

Open now the crystal fountain, Whence the living waters flow;
Speak Thou from Thine ancient mountain, Grant that I Thy will may know.
Holy Spirit, Holy Spirit, Ever be Thy people's help,
Ever be Thy people's help. Amen.

THE HISTORY OF ACADEMIC DRESS dates from the earliest days of European universities. It is still debated whether academic dress originated chiefly in ecclesiastical or civilian dress. Gowns may well have been necessary for warmth in the unheated buildings used by medieval scholars. Hoods seem originally to have served as covering for the tonsured heads of monk-scholars until superceded by skull-caps, and those in turn by more familiar "academic" caps.

The dress reveals the history of the wearer's highest academic achievement. The Bachelor's gown has long pointed sleeves, and is worn closed; the Master's has squared sleeves, which extend below the knee. It is worn open or closed. The Doctor's gown has bell-shaped sleeves with three velvet bars, and velvet facing. Most American gowns are black.

Hoods are lined with the official colors of the institution conferring the degree. At Drew University these are Lincoln green with a gold chevron for the College, and Oxford blue with a Lincoln green chevron for the Theological and Graduate Schools. The velvet edging of the hood designates the field in which the degree is conferred. Colors most commonly to be seen include:

Art, Letters, Humanities	White
Education	Light Blue
Law	Purple
Medicine	Green
Philosophy	Dark Blue
Science	Golden Yellow
Theology	Scarlet
